Steel Dispute Still Deadlocked After 25 Days

Pressure Is Mounting In Congress to Have President Intervene

NEW YORK (AP)—The 25-day-old steel strike seemed as far away from settlement as ever today, and pressure was mounting in Congress to have President Eisenhower intervene.

Friday, Steelworkers Union President David J. McDonald joined company spokesmen and mediators in saying that recent reports of progress were unfounded. Negotiations will resume Monday after a weekend recess.

In Washington, 32 Senate Democrats have sponsored a resolution urging Eisenhower to try to speed a settlement in the strike, which experts estimate has already cost both company and workers more than a billion dollars in wages and orders.

The resolution was offered Tuesday by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) who has asked that it be left open for other signers until next Tuesday, when it will be referred to the Senate Labor Committee.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), the Senate Majority Leader, has indicated he is taking no part in pushing the resolution, but 31 senators have joined Symington in signing it.

The strike has idled half a million steelworkers and shut down almost 90 per cent of the nation's steel production. It is estimated that more than 100,000 workers in transportation and mining have been thrown out of work as a result of the strike.

The resolution, if passed, would put Congress on record as favoring two moves. The first would be to have the President summon union and industry leaders to the White House and use his influence to have them reach agreement.

If that failed, the President would be expected to set a deadline for agreement. If no agreement was reached by then, the President would be expected to appoint a fact-finding board to submit recommendations for a settlement.

The President has already named Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell as a one-man fact finder, but there has been no indication Mitchell's role would be much more than to keep the President informed on the situation.

The president is understood to be reluctant to interfere with the process of collective bargaining, and does not want to make any move that might be looked on as helping one side or the other.

Chief Federal Mediator Joseph F. Finnegan cautioned against false hopes merely because industry and union have been meeting face-to-face instead of separately. He said such meetings were encouraging, but it was a mistake to believe they had resulted in progress.

131 Donors Signed For Bloodmobile

Some 131 persons have promised to make donations of blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile visits Salem next Friday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the United Steelworkers Union hall, 547 Prospect St.

The quota is 180 pints. Mrs. James Gregg, chairman of blood recruitment, reports that her committee of telephone callers is having somewhat disappointing results in their efforts to get promises, mainly because so many of the Salem area residents are on vacation or will be away the day the bloodmobile is here.

Prospective donors are urged to call the Red Cross office as soon as possible.

Oregon Death Toll Now at 11

Coroner Suspects More Were Killed

ROSEBURG, Ore. (AP)—Eight business blocks of this southern Oregon city, seared and shattered when a truck load of explosives blew up like a bomb, were sealed off by the National Guard today while searchers sought more victims.

At least 11 persons were killed early Friday when the 6½ tons of dynamite and other explosives detonated after fire spread to the parked truck from a nearby building blaze.

Coroner C. H. Babbitt said he was certain that there were other deaths. He said ashes, believed to be the remains of humans, were found in a charred rooming house near the blast scene. The ashes are being sent to a laboratory for testing.

Some 100 persons were injured by the blast, 52 of them requiring hospital treatment.

The explosion, which eyewitnesses said sent a column of flame hundreds of feet into the air, caused extensive damage to an eight block section on the edge of the main business district. Buildings in some 22 blocks around the blast scene were damaged to a lesser extent. Firemen said they had reports of windows being broken as far away as seven miles.

Arlo Jacklin, mayor of this city of 12,200, said property damage would probably total 10 to 12 million dollars.

The truck, loaded with two tons of stick dynamite and 4½ tons of the explosive mixture of ammonium nitrate and oil had been parked near the Gerretsen Building Supply Co. building for the night by its driver, George Ruthertford, 47, of Chehalis, Wash.

It is believed that a fire started in trash cans and then spread to the Gerretsen structure. Firemen were fighting the fire — which spread quickly — when at 1:15 a. m. the truck blew up with a deafening roar.

Two Blasts Rip Delaware Home

7 Under Arrest In First Explosion

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Seven white men have been arrested in connection with the first of two explosions that ripped through a Negro home.

Delaware State Police Capt. John Herbert said after Friday's announcement of the arrests that officials expect more to follow.

Herbert did not explain whether they might be in connection with the first blast last April 7 that caused $3,500 damage or the latest explosion last Sunday that completely wrecked the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rayfield. The Rayfields and their teen-age daughter were not at home at either time.

The Rayfields were the first and only Negro family to move into the previously all-white nearby community of Collins Park last January.

The Rayfields are staying with relatives here. They plan to move soon into a rented house.

Delaware State Police, acting on FBI tips, arrested six of the men. The other man was arrested in Venice, Fla., where he was vacationing.

Those arrested in Wilmington were Gilbert Minnick, 49; Francis Conley, 32; Albert L. Reverditto, 32; David Emory, 28, and Ronald Therkildsen, 24, all of Collins Park and Melvin Downing, 28, of Overview Gardens, a neighboring development.

All were released on bail ranging from $5,000 to $15,000 pending Delaware Superior Court action. William V. Charlton, a filling station operator, was arrested in Venice, Charlton, who also lived in Collins Park, said that he was 600

One Hurt In City Traffic Mishap

One person was admitted to Salem City Hospital as a result of two minor auto crashes in the city Friday evening.

Naval Research Develops New Radar Device

Latest Instrument Shortens Warning Time In Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new radar device to spy across oceans and give a quick report on ballistic missile launchings is being developed, the U.S. Navy says.

The radar also could be used as one means of uncovering sneak tests of nuclear weapons in violation of any international agreement.

Dr. William J. Thaler of the Office of Naval Research and "father" of the new radar setup called Project Teepee, said Friday night:

"I would hope you could double the warning time."

This would mean that the United States would have almost 30 minutes instead of 15 minutes — possible under the U.S. system now being built — in which to launch counter-weapons. Military men figure it would take about 30 minutes for a missile fired in the Soviet Union to reach the United States.

Thaler, 33, talked to newsmen about the project. Asked if the Navy had tested the device against Soviet ICBM testing launchings, he replied "no."

Trials with the device, which he said is still in the early "breadboard" developmental stage, have worked at what amount to intercontinental ranges—5,500 miles.

Thaler said the device is located at an undisclosed place in continental United States and picked up the ballistic missile-nuclear explosive tests made last summer in Project Argus in the South Atlantic and the Johnston Island tests in the Pacific.

However, the New York Times said today that several stations are now in operation, adding: "The number and locations of these stations are secret."

The Times story continued: "Soviet missile and satellite firings have been monitored for the last several months from locations within the boundaries of the continental United States."

The newspaper also said:

"The system can also determine the location of missile-launching sites and can evaluate the performance of a rocket thousands of miles away. Such information has already yielded important guide lines on the state of the Soviet missile program."

Others From Lisbon; Car Hits Bridge On Curve at E. Rochester

By LARRY HAWSE

High speed and a missed curve spelled death to two Salem men and two Lisbon men early this morning on Rt. 30 when their auto struck a bridge abutment near East Rochester and rolled over several times.

A Salem man, also a passenger in the car, was injured and is in fair condition in Salem City Hospital.

Killed in the 3:15 a. m. wreck were:

Orland L. Parrish, 23, of 133 E. High St., Lisbon, the driver.
Lloyd R. Williams, 17, of W. Maple St. Ext., Lisbon.

Edward G. Flick, 22, RD 1, Salem.
Frank E. Wilson, 24, of RD 1, Salem.

Injured in the fatal mishap was John Morris, 24, of 418 Aetna St., Salem. He suffered possible head and chest injuries and lacerations of the face, scalp and right forearm.

Were Returning Home

The battered wreckage of the Mercury hardtop was struck only a few minutes after the mishap by a Buick sedan in which two companions of the victims were riding.

The seven men were returning from Minerva where they had visited a restaurant, the State Highway Patrol of Lisbon reported.

Three of the men in Parrish's car were thrown out as the car flipped over and over down the road, while two others were found in the smashed car. The four dead were killed instantly.

Officers said Parrish was driving east when he lost control on a curve. The death vehicle skidded approximately 180 feet down the grassy berm along the left side of the road. Apparently Parrish started to pull out of the skid—but too late.

The rear of the car snapped an 8 by 14-inch timber on the wooden bridge. It was thrown by the impact of the crash and rolled across the bridge, coming to rest in the middle of the road sideways. It had rolled about 100 feet past the bridge.

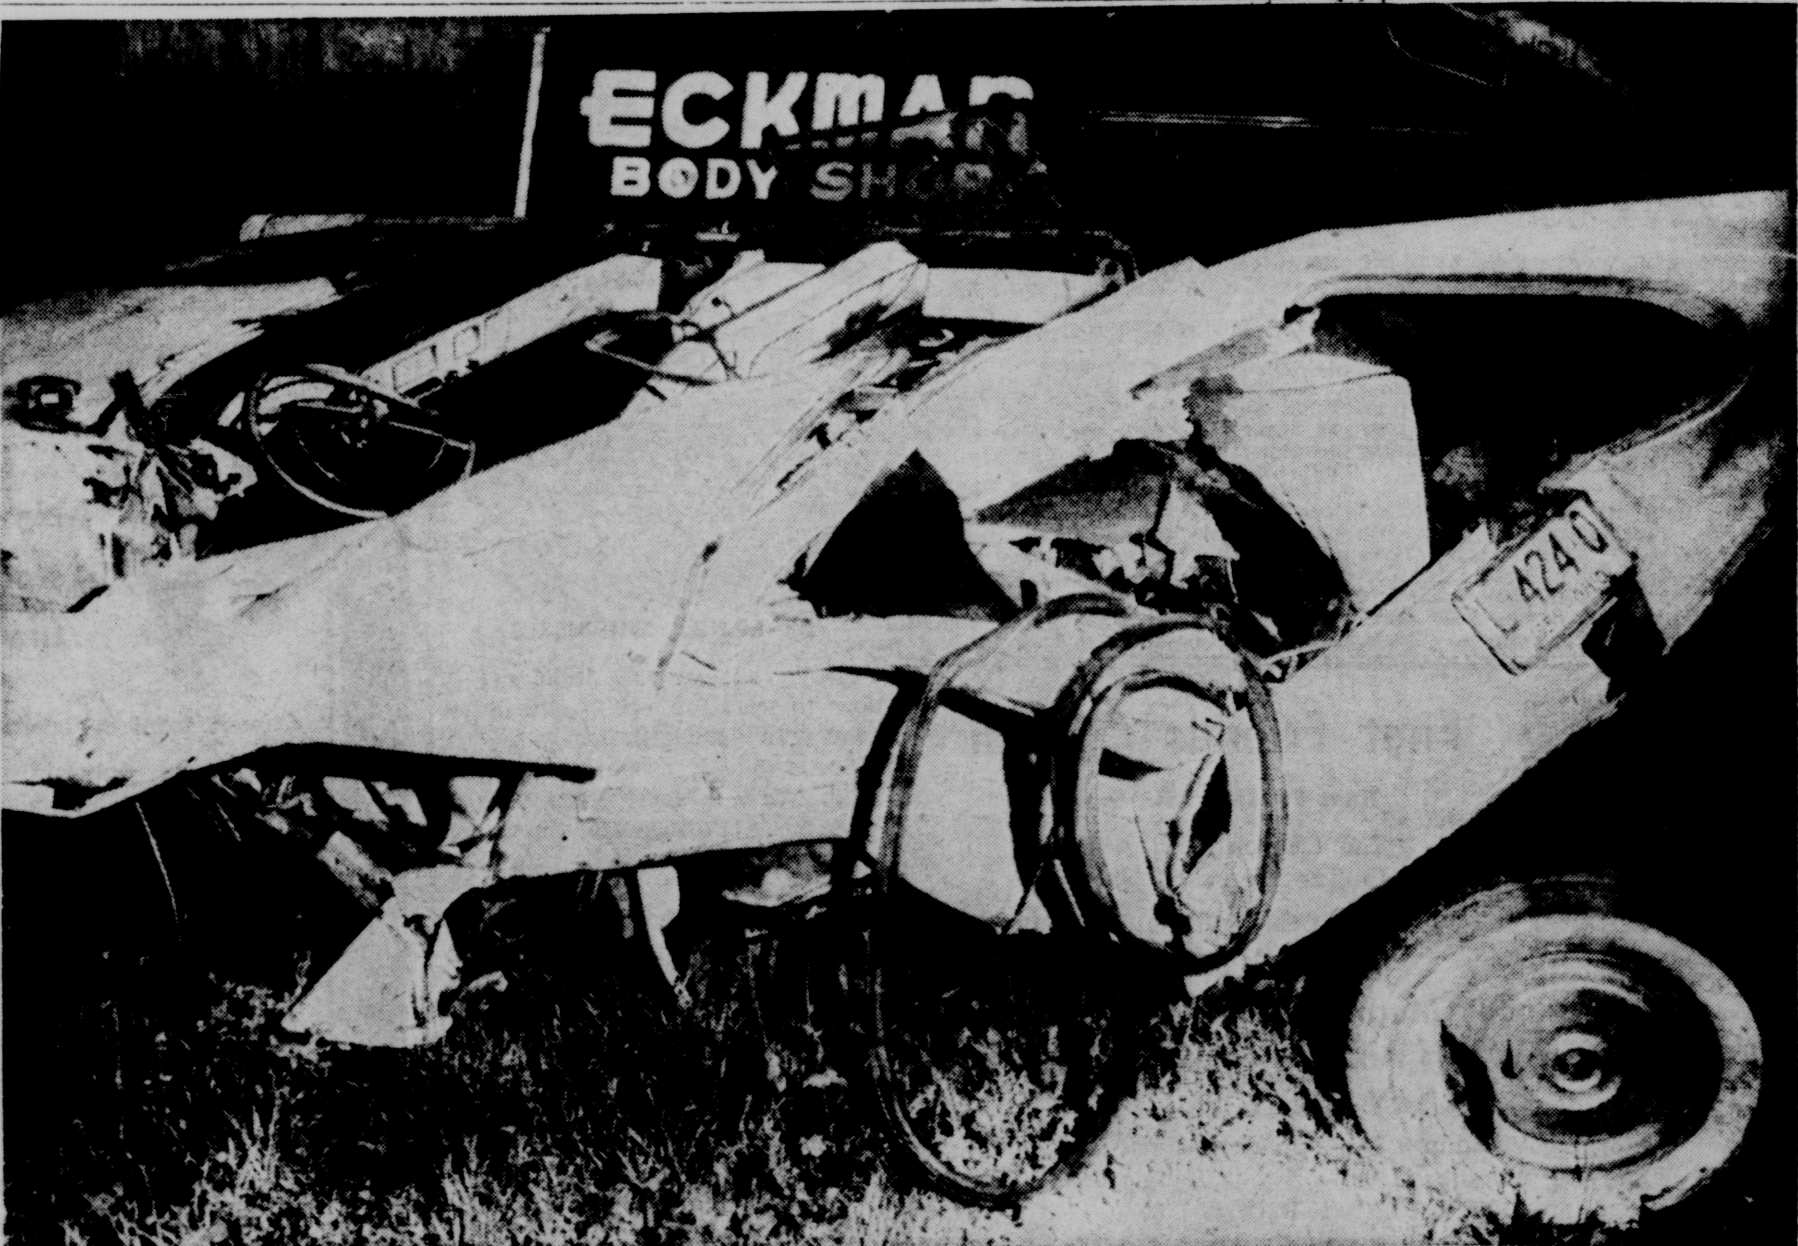

The impact of the collision threw parts of the wreckage along the bridge and both sides of the road. The gasoline tank of the auto was today floating in the stream near the bridge.

The force of the crash lifted the victims out of their shoes. Early this morning, the shoes, pieces of twisted metal and glass gave mute evidence of the tragedy.

Riding In Second Car

The other auto in the two-car party was driven by Donald L. Custer, 27, of RD 3, Lisbon. He was unable to stop and hit a projecting part of Parrish's auto,

Pilot Battered by Thunderstorm

Marine Officer Bails Out of Jet at 9 Miles

BEAUFORT, S.C. (AP) — The Marine pilot bailed out of his crippled jet nine miles above the earth at 500 miles an hour. He did not reach the earth in his parachute for 40 minutes, and received a buffeting from a raging thunderstorm that made him feel like he "was playing the whole Notre Dame football team."

Lt. Col. William H. Rankin, 39, the pilot, recounted his story today. He is recovering in the hospital here while doctors study his reactions to what may have been the highest altitude parachute jump ever made.

On the night of July 26 Col. Rankin was on his way back to Beaufort from Boston Naval Air Station on a high-altitude navigation flight. His F8U Crusader fighter's engine suddenly stopped, for unknown reasons, while he was in a gentle climb at 47,000 feet.

"I had no power, radio, instruments or control over the plane," he said.

Rankin ejected himself from the plane.

The pressure at 47,000 feet is much lower than at sea level, the temperature much colder. "I felt a violent decompression, my whole body expanded. It was freezing cold. It had been 75 degrees in the cockpit, outside it was 5 below zero. I couldn't keep my eyes open and my nose was bleeding freely. My hands got numb and one wrist and ankle got frostbitten."

"The chute is set by barometric pressure to open at 10,000 feet."

GI's to Get 'Cut' If They Return Samurai Swords

NEW YORK (AP)—Some GI's are in for a good "cut" if they own certain ancient Samurai swords, considered by Japan to be national treasures.

The Japanese Artistic Sword Preservation Assn. has launched a treasure hunt for 42 of the fierce-looking, two-handed blades believed brought home by American servicemen after World War I. The 42 are among an estimated 350,000 carted home by the men.

Junzo Sato, representative of the association, said Friday he was prepared to present "suitable gifts" to any one returning a valuable Samurai sword. The most treasured blades, the ones being sought, date back to the 11th and 12th centuries.

The value of the swords depends on the name of the sword maker, which is inscribed on the 30-inch blade, or the name of the family to which it belongs, Sato said.

'Miss Playground' To Be Crowned At Buckeye Carnival

Children from Buckeye and Centennial Park Playgrounds will co-sponsor a World Tour Carnival at Buckeye Playground Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. A highlight of this second annual event will be the crowning of Miss Playground 1959 at ceremonies at 8 p.m.

Two candidates from each playground in the city will compete in the contest for Miss Playground. Miss Evelyn Capcia and Vaughn Harshman, directors at Buckeye Playground, and Miss Mary Jane Mathews and Paul Barnard, directors at Centennial Park Playground, will be in charge.

A variety of booths will be planned by the children for the festivities. The booths will be decorated in a theme of the country which they represent, and children in charge will be dressed in appropriate costumes when possible. A Hawaiian Cafe is being arranged for the pleasure of adults.

Some of the countries to be represented are Mexico, France, the Philippines, Italy, Russia, Africa, Alaska, Japan, China, England and America. In addition, an American circus will be featured on the program.

Monday at 1 p.m. a parade of cars will leave from Buckeye School to advertise the coming carnival. Candidates from Buckeye and Centennial Park Playgrounds will be dressed in bathing suits with name banners attached. They will be accompanied by Bill Taus of Buckeye School, who was crowned "Mr. Playground" at Prospect Playground's penny carnival held Thursday night, and by a number of children in costume.

The candidates will present treats of candy to the children in other playgrounds and deliver personal invitations to attend the World Tour Carnival.

PACT VOTE SET

The one-year agreement was recommended by the Independent Natural Gas Workers Union's 27-member executive committee. It provides benefits estimated by John D. Nagle, state president of the union, a 6.7 per cent, or 16 cents an hour. Wage gains, he said, averaged 10.7 cents hourly, with some salaried employees getting as much as a $26 a month.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	12	35-36
Monday	Psalms	84	1-6
Tuesday	Job	5	8-14
Wednesday	Isaiah	9	1-6
Thursday	Jeremiah	13	15-17
Friday	Lamentations	3	22-26
Saturday	John	14	6-13

Have you ever been deep in a woodland, where it is so dark that you think light can never enter? Then suddenly a shaft of sunlight strikes through the trees, and you find yourself standing in unexpected beauty.

Life can be like that, too. At the darkest moment, suddenly there can be light—if you have the power to see it. But that's an important "if." So many of us fumble through the days and years when the greatest candle of all, the Church, stands ready to light our path.

If you have been depriving yourself of the guiding strength of the Church, start now attending its services. It will help you find your way both in sunlight and in shadow.

New Brand of Highway Robbery

Cynics who thought they had sampled every double shuffle in bad relations between the federal government and the states are changing their minds.

The double shuffle on federal aid for highways tops them all.

Every state that hustled along a highway-building program geared to the federal program now is in acute danger of holding the bag if Congress cuts back on its promised appropriation.

Highways now under construction would be dead-ended with no connecting links. Orderly planning for future construction would be impossible. Work that never would have been started without the promise of 90 per cent support by the federal government would remain half done. The brightest promise of a genuine highway-building program ever made to the nation would go sour. A national scandal is in the making.

Why? Because the only way to stay abreast of the cost of what is under way is to add another cent and a half to the federal tax on gasoline — to keep the federal program on a pay-as-you-build basis.

On-the-cuff spenders in Congress are trying to blast the pay-as-you-build principle. They refuse to have anything to do with another increase in gasoline taxes, though they cheerfully would add a few billion to the national debt if they had a chance.

They argue that motorists cannot afford to pay any more gas tax, which is absurd. Motorists can afford the price of progress, as they prove by using toll roads and as statisticians can prove by the lower operating costs of automobiles driven on modern highways.

The problem is not economics but politics. Spenders are squared off with spend-as-you-go savers.

It is a showdown between on-the-cuff advocates and on-the-line advocates.

It is a test of good faith in government. If the federal government sells out the states and localities over a congressional fight between a budget-balancing administration and a legislative majority susceptible to the credo that sniping is the best way to win elections, every motorist in the country will wind up in the battle.

Every stalled project will be a thundering rebuke to politicians who first urged the states to go faster, then refused to follow through on their own promise to keep the pace.

State highway officials meeting in Chicago this week pointed out that absence of public reaction had made it easy for shortsighted congressmen and anti-highway lobbyists to jeopardize the federal highway program.

Only a strong public reaction can undo the damage threatened by the recommendation of the House Ways and Means Committee to slash federal funds for states cooperating in the Interstate Highway Program.

The way to stop the threatened highway robbery is to cry, "Thief!" at the congressmen who refuse to levy the taxes to build the highways that motorists need.

Politics Can't Be Left Out of It

If it were possible to leave politics out of the actions of a politician, this would be the time to do it—while Vice President Nixon's visit to the Soviet Union is being appraised.

But politics can't be left out of anything that Richard Nixon does, because he is the most intensely political personality of the day and will be more so as President Eisenhower moves toward the date of his own mandatory retirement from politics.

This has galvanized the vice president's opponents both inside and outside his own party since he was tapped for political prominence as the running mate of the Republican party's show-in candidate in 1952. Rarely in U.S. history has anyone been given a greater opportunity to shine in presidential politics.

But the significant thing about Richard Nixon — politically — is that he shone. In every assignment he has drawn, he has turned in a distinguished performance. He is the despair of opponents who wait for him to stumble so they can push him out of sight.

Whether asked to go stumping for the Republican party in a lost-cause election, as he did last fall, or to represent the United States in a formal function abroad, as he and Mrs. Nixon did in London last November, he left no doubt of his ability to perform his mission with dignity and brilliance.

And since the Nixons, man and wife, are the present essence of politics, this would seem to be the time to observe that their success as a team is derived from the rarest of political traits — one that all politicians treasure but few politicians possess.

They are believable in everything they do and say. They do not have to pretend to be something they aren't, because they are exactly what they purport to be — an American couple elevated by the miracle of democracy to a station they know they occupy by virtue of their sense of equality.

It is the best trick there is in popular government when it happens — and it has happened to the Nixons abundantly. Politics is the better for it.

Airport Premature

Formal mention was made at the Salem Industrial Development Corporation's public rally Tuesday evening of the SAIDC's plans to investigate the possibility of securing a municipal airport.

Airline connections are extremely important to an industrial city such as Salem, but until such time as the organization's stock shares program has reached its zenith, it is debatable whether airport plans should be given serious consideration.

Local industrial factories already use existing nearby airports such as the larger ones at Youngstown, Canton-Akron or even Pittsburgh, besides the many smaller airports right here.

Airports cost money to own and operate and until such time as Salem is in a position to acquire or build one, it might be wiser to concentrate on all of the many other fine objectives of the Industrial Development Corporation. And, with the solid backing of all citizens, much can be accomplished.

4 For School Board

An interesting contest has shaped up for the Salem Board of Education as the result of final filings with the county board of elections.

Orelin Naragon, now vice president of the board, again will be a candidate while Gail C. Herron, who was appointed when Mayor Harold Smith resigned, will seek formal election. He was filling Mr. Smith's unexpired term. Because Board President Alfred Fitch declined to seek another term, this attracted two newcomers, Atty. Bryce Kendall, Mr. Fitch's law partner, and Stephen A. Gonda, longtime secretary of the Manufacturers Association.

Since only three seats on the school board are to be filled, the "four's a crowd" problem will have to be solved by the voters. It won't be easy because each man is a good Salem citizen interested in providing the best educational advantages for our children. Whenever there's a contest for school board vacancies, it helps to focus more attention on school affairs. We like that.

What Will Ike, Mr. K Discuss?

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—What will President Eisenhower and Premier Nikita Khrushchev talk about when they exchange visits? Berlin, that's for sure. If it were not for Berlin, there probably would be no meeting at all now.

And three of the four main problems they discussed the last time they met—at the 1955 Geneva summit conference — are still pressing points of conflict: German reunification, American bases overseas, and disarmament.

Geneva solved one of them. One thing discussed there in 1955 was improved: cultural and scientific exchanges between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The two men are playing down the idea they will negotiate. American Allies understandably may feel uneasy for fear of deals when the two giants, the United States and the Soviet Union sit down together.

I is to allay such fears that Eisenhower is going to Europe to talk with the Allies before he meets Khrushchev in September. But the two leaders are not meeting to play beanbag.

They don't have to call what they do negotiating. They can use a less sensitive word by saying they are trying to reach an "understanding." The effect would be the same.

But an understanding is not necessarily a flat agreement. After reaching an understanding with Khrushchev, Eisenhower could delay any flat agreement or commitment until he got Allied approval.

Yet, except for some understanding which eases tension over Berlin, it's hard to see Eisenhower and Khrushchev at this time settling any of those three major problems which separated East and West at Geneva and still do.

There is no doubt this meeting with Khrushchev was forced on Eisenhower by the Soviet Premier who precipitated the Berlin problem, never yielded, and at the same time kept talking of wanting to meet the President.

Khrushchev had threatened to force the Allied troops out of Berlin. If either side used force in this case, it could have meant war. For weeks the Allied and Soviet foreign ministers discussed the problem.

They broke up Wednesday. The result of all their talks was zero. It seems no accident Eisenhower announced Monday—two days before the talks ended—that he had invited Khrushchev here and later would go to Moscow to talk with him.

If there were no arrangements at this minute for these visits, Khrushchev might have been trying right now to make good on his Berlin threats. At least, with the break-up of the ministers' talks, the West and Moscow faced a showdown.

That showdown has not been avoided—ultimately. But at least it has been delayed some months while Eisenhower and Khrushchev get a chance to talk it over. Khrushchev comes here in mid-September, Eisenhower goes to the Soviet Union later.

Therefore, Eisenhower can't lose anything and might gain something—since he knows and Khrushchev knows the Russians have the West in a dangerous spot on Berlin—to try to get a peaceful solution with the Soviet leader.

But Khrushchev is a tough trader. If he yields on Berlin, he will want concessions from Eisenhower, on Berlin or something else.

At this moment probably neither man knows how much he will demand or yield.

The two men have the whole world to talk about, but there is no indication either is ready yet—or, to put it another way, feels he has to — talk business if it means yielding much ground.

Business Competition

By PETER EDSON

New U.S. Law Hits Unfair Practices

With no fanfare whatever, Pres-raging from $100 to $38,000. ident Eisenhower signed into law the other day a Clayton Act Finality Bill. This measure may have wide effect in protecting consumer interests by preventing unfair or deceptive business practices and by promoting fair competition.

The Clayton Act, passed in 1914, outlaws specific business practices recognized as instruments of monopoly.

The new law will make cease and desist orders, issued under the Clayton Act, effective in 60 days unless they are appealed to federal courts by business firms against whom they have been issued. This new enforcement power will be retroactive to 1915, when desist orders were issued.

The hundreds of these orders issued in the last 44 years have remained largely unenforceable because of a gimmick in the original law. It provided that no Clayton Act cease and desist order could be made final unless three violations could be proved or unless the original cease and desist order was appealed to federal court by a respondent and the court then affirmed the order.

By simply doing nothing—by not appealing the cease and desist orders—business firms could stymie enforcement unless they chose to comply voluntarily.

FIVE INDEPENDENT government regulatory agencies which administer parts of the Clayton Act are affected by the new finality bill. They are Interstate Commerce Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board, Federal Communications Commission, Federal Reserve Board and Federal Trade Commission.

The last named agency has had finality enforcement powers for its functions under the Federal Trade Commission Act, but it lacked this authority under the Clayton Act. Under the Trade Commission Act, FTC since 1915 has issued nearly 100 cease and desist orders with civil penalties which the orders have been issued include price discrimination, exclusive dealing and tying arrangements, corporate mergers, interlocking directorates and Robinson-Patman Act violations when the effect of such practices lessens competition and tends to create monopoly.

Under the new law, cease and desist orders will become automatically effective within 60 days unless the respondent in the case goes to court and petitions that the order be set aside. If there is such judicial review, the cease and desist orders become final when affirmed by court.

No criminal penalties are involved for violations. But the new act provides for civil penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

EFFORTS TO HAVE Clayton Act cease and desist orders made final go back more than 20 years. Early recommendations were made in broad language. But in President Eisenhower's last four Economic Reports, he has made specific recommendations for five amendments to the antitrust laws as means to promote economic growth. Passage of the CLAYTON Act Finality Bill is the first of these recommendations approved by Congress. It may go down in the records as one of the most important, even if one of the least-publicized, Congressional actions this year.

It is significant, however, that this legislation was introduced and pushed by Democrats.—Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) and four others in the Senate, Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) and four others in the House. The bill had backing from many small business groups hurt by monopoly practices.

States' Water Rights

By RAYMOND MOLEY

While most of the headlines on the Governors' Conference in Puerto Rico will deal with political speculation, the immediate effect of Nelson Rockefeller's famous personality on uncommitted Republicans will be studied, and the preference of Southern governors for Lyndon Johnson will probably be expressed.

Also, the arts of Minnesota's Gov. Freeman will be displayed in favor of Sen. Humphrey, while Connecticut's Abraham Ribicoff will be extolling Sen. Kennedy. All the while, several uncommitted Democratic governors will coyly nourish their own hopes.

But an issue that will last long after the votes are counted in 1960 will provide a sort of unity between Democrats and Republicans.

This is the peril to state sovereignty in the encroachment of the federal government on the constitutional right of a state to own and regulate the waters in its domain.

Here the Supreme Court has been eroding the Constitution even more than in segregation and subversive activities control.

FOR THE MOST PART, Western land is without value without water and in at least 10 states in that area water is scarce either all the time or part of the time. Thus, water rights are an essential part of property rights.

The invasion of the federal power is a threat to the economy and growth of every one of those states.

While long ago Chief Justice Marshall set the pattern of federal authority in navigable streams, the rights of the states to water on or under the ground were undisputed or a century. Indeed, Congress has recognized those rights by 25 separate statute since 1866.

Despite these legislative recognitions, the federal courts since 1940 have been hacking away at the states' authority. In 1940 the Supreme Court handed down a revolutionary opinion to the effect that any stream that could be made navigable was subject to federal authority. In 1955 in the Pelton Dam case it was decided that the federal government need not get authority from a state to build a reservoir on a non-navigable river if at any point the river flowed by a federal reservation.

In the Hawthorne case a district court said that the Navy need not comply with the laws of Nevada in pumping water from underground stores in "reserved lands." Since Nevada is mostly federal land and this underground water is precious to stock and agricultural property privately owned, the decision struck at the very vitals of the state's economy.

In the Santa Margarita case, still in litigation, thousands of water-hungry users of water from that California stream have been summarily ordered to quit tapping the river because its source is in a Navy installation.

Not only in the West, but in the East, states have taken note of this peril to their life and Massachusetts, New York, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Indiana and Ohio have enacted new protective water laws or set up commissions to work toward that end.

IN JANUARY of this year, 19 of the 45 legislatures in session have memorialized Congress and the President to take action to reestablish the water rights of the states.

At the Southern Regional Conference of State Governments in June, a resolution was passed recording strong views on the subject, and the Council of State Governments, under whose auspices this Governors' Conference is held, has formed an Interstate Conference on Water Problems.

Hearings on the subject are now underway before the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee.

The arguments there have gone beyond the consideration of water rights alone. They have developed the indivisibility of state authority.

If the federal government can take states how to run their schools, bribe them with school aid and tell them they cannot pass ordinary police regulations against subversion, there isn't much left for states except to care for their public charges, including the insane.

Hence, there will be a lot of support for H.R. 3, curbing the Supreme Court, from states which have no interest in the problem of integration.

Couple Exchange Marriage Vows In Church At Sebring

Virginia is the honeymoon destination of Edward Miller of Sebring and his bride, the former Miss Catherine Marie Schwartzhoff whose marriage took place this morning at 10 in St. Ann's Catholic Church, Sebring.

The Rev. Fr. F. J. Petros officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwartzhoff of Sebring, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller of Albuquerque, N. Mex.

White gladioli and palms enhanced by tapers in candelabra formed the altar setting for the ceremony. Miss Mary Reale and Mrs. David McSweeney, both of Sebring, were soloist and organist, respectively.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her full length wedding gown was fashioned of white nylon dotted swiss. It was designed with a scoop neckline and short sleeves and accented with bands of white velvet on the bodice. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. White flowers were combined in her colonial bouquet.

Miss Helen Schwartzhoff of Sebring and Mrs. Edwin Senior of Beloit, sisters of the bride, served as maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. They were dressed in identical street length gowns of ice blue organza lined with taffeta and trimmed with wide sashes ending in front bows. They wore shoes and headpieces to match. Their bouquets contained white carnations edged in blue.

Another sister of the bride, Miss Theresa Schwartzhoff of Sebring, was flower girl. She wore a poudre blue dress made like her sisters' dresses and she carried a Madeira basket filled with flowers.

Fred Miller of Oklahoma served as his brother's best man. Edwin Senior, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Fred McKenzie of Alliance ushered.

The bride's mother was attired in a beige lace sheath with beige and tan accessories and she wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception followed in the Elks Home in Alliance. The three-tiered wedding cake, encircled with flowers, was served by Miss Barbara Mueller of Sebring.

Miss Evelyn Cardinal, also of Sebring, registered the 150 guests from Sebring, Alliance, Beloit, Ash-tabula, Niles, Canton, Chagrin Falls, Salem and Oklahoma.

The bride, who was graduated from Sebring High School, Class of 1956, is an employee in the accounting department of B & W Research in Alliance. Her husband, a graduate of Sebring High School, Class of 1954, served four years in the Air Force and attended Mount Union College this past year. During this summer, he was employed as recreational director by Fairmount Children's Home.

For her going away outfit, the new Mrs. Miller chose a blue silk print sheath with blue and beige accessories. When they return from Virginia, the newlyweds will reside at 1141 S. Seneca St., Alliance.

A party was held at the bride's home following rehearsal Friday evening.

Cicotte Puts Out Fire As Tribe Turns Back Orioles 8-5

Score Leaves Game In Fourth

Gordon Picks Perry To Start Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP) — Young Jim Perry has his work cut out for him tonight.

The 22-year-old rookie right-hander, a fugitive from the Cleveland Indians' bullpen, has been selected by manager Joe Gordon to pitch the second game of the series with the Baltimore Orioles. His opposition will be Skinny Brown, who has beaten the Indians three times this season.

Brown, who has been particularly tough on the Indians during the past two seasons, has won eight games and lost six this season. Perry's record is 8-3.

The Indians won the series opener Friday night by coming from behind to take an 8-5 decision. The victory was their fourth in five games on the current road trip and kept them within 1½ games of the first place Chicago White Sox in the American League pennant race.

A four-run rally in the third inning put the Indians ahead to stay and kept starter Herb Score from taking his 10th defeat.

The Indians scored a run in the first inning on a walk, a double and an infield play, but the Orioles came back with three runs in the bottom of the first.

Score (9-9), making his first start since July 27, gave up three singles, a double and a walk during the Orioles' rally. A double play finally got him out of the inning.

Cleveland's four-run outburst was at the expense of starter and loser Jerry Walker. Minnie Minoso, Tito Francona, Rocky Colavito, Jim Baxes, Score and Jim Piersall hit singles to send Walker to the showers and put the Indians ahead, 5-3.

Cleveland scored two more runs in the fourth inning on walks to Francona and Colavito, errors by left fielder Gene Woodling and first baseman Walt Dropo and a single by George Strickland.

After Score retired the first batter he faced in the fourth inning, he was nicked for two doubles, good for a Baltimore run. He then was relieved by Al Cicotte after two walks filled the bases. The victory went to Cicotte, his third in four decisions.

Cleveland got its last run in the ninth on a walk and two singles.

Stewarts Out of County Tournament

Leetonia, Shaffer's Win Softball Games

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

The dubious distinction of being the first team eliminated from the county softball tournament fell on Stewart Recreation Friday night when Leetonia OSI trimmed the field to 16 clubs with a 4-1 victory.

In the only other game completed last night before the rains came, Shaffer Ford handed Lincoln Machine its first loss in two starts by a score of 3-2.

Play was halted in the third game with Farmers Bank at bat in the last half of the second inning with Farmers leading Salona Supply 2-0. The game will be resumed from that point when the two teams meet again at 4 p.m. Sunday. The Beloit-East Liverpool Y.E.L.P. game was postponed.

LEETONIA'S BOB SHOFFER hurled a four-hitter and struck out 10 to hand Stewart its second consecutive loss in the double elimination tournament. The game was a do or die affair for Leetonia to since it had been defeated in its opening game.

Leetonia scored three times in the first inning without the aid of a hit. Two errors, a walk, a wild pitch and a steal of home by Pitcher Shoff put Stewart in a hole which it couldn't overcome.

Barney Israel's double and Al Marsh's run producing single accounted for Stewart's only run in the first inning. Dwayne Stanley laid down three hits in three at bats for Leetonia to lead all the hitters.

Don Brudery singled home Jack Brudery from second base in the fifth inning to break a 2-2 tie and give Shaffer's win over Lincoln. Shaffer had scored two runs the previous inning to tie the contest.

Lincoln had jumped off to a two-run lead in the first inning when Bill Odorizzi reached base on a fielder's choice, Frank Lanney singled and Charlie Marks brought them both home with another one base blow.

Pitcher Bruce Feicht then tightened up to shut out Lincoln the rest of the way. Lanney, who did the pitching for Lincoln, gave up only five hits but Shaffer took better advantage of the breaks and wound up with the edge.

Poloists Hosts to Beaver on Sunday
The Salem Polo Club will have to go through six chukkers without an alternate to call upon for relief Sunday when it tangles with Beaver Valley at 3 p.m. on the home field.

Ron Tetemanz who has been filling in as alternate for Salem is a charter member of the Beaver Valley club and will be wearing the uniform of the opposition Sunday.

Salem has won just three games this year and two of them have been over Beaver Valley. The locals will have Phil Thompson at number one, Capt. Jimmy Bahr at two, Jack Arnold at three and Lloyd Brunner in the defensive spot.

For Beaver Valley, Ron Tetemanz will be joined by his brother Glen, Capt. Lou Hoffner and number three man Paul Powers. The last time Beaver Valley played in Salem it brought no alternate and went down to a 9-4 defeat. Sunday, however, it is expected to bring along fifth man Larry Zeh.

K. of C. Takes Class F Title

Beats Eagles 12-7 In Hot Stove Action

K of C wrapped up the Class F Hot Stove League title Friday night with a convincing 12-7 win over second place Eagles.

In other action at Centennial and Memorial Parks, CIO 3372 (Bliss) trounced CIO 2463 (Demings) 12-2 in Class E and Electric Furnace surprised Farmers Bank in Class F by a score of 7-4.

K of C became the third Hot Stove club to clinch a division title this season. Bliss is the Class E champion and Starks Colonial Attic has clinched the Class H title. Only in F where Fishers' News and Salem Stamping are fighting it out is there still a title at stake.

Jim Lantz gave up six hits to the Eagles in picking up credit for the win. A triple by K of C's Chris Christofaris was the game's only extra base blow.

Marks Hurts 4-Hitter
Larry Marks pitched a four-hitter to lead Bliss in its rout of Demings. The win moved Bliss eight and a half games out in front of the pack. None of the other three teams in the league is playing .500 ball.

Dick Ehrhart slugged out three hits in four at bats for the winners. Marks helped his own cause by hitting a home run and scoring three runs. John Hanna and Tom Owens divided Deming's four hits.

Fourth place Electric Furnace turned on third place Farmers Bank with a big four run fourth inning. Barrett with two singles and a triple led Electric Furnace's nine-hit attack. Scott had a pair of triples for the losers.

New York Regains 4th Place

Chicago Tops Senators 4-1; Yankees Dump Athletics 3-0

By The Associated Press

Herb Score must return to his old 20-game winning form if the Cleveland Indians are to contend for the American League flag, isn't that what they said last night that what they said last spring?

Well, here it is with more than two thirds of the season gone and Score still struggling to get half those 20 victories. And the Indians? They're not doing too badly—only a game and a half out of the league lead.

As has been the case in recent weeks, Score failed again Friday night but the Indians won. They defeated the Baltimore Orioles 8-5 to stay close on the heels of the Chicago White Sox who whipped the Washington Senators 4-1.

The New York Yankees wrestled fourth place from Kansas City by defeating the Athletics 3-0 and Boston nipped Detroit 4-3 to drop the Tigers into sixth place.

The San Francisco Giants increased their National League lead to a game and a half by defeating the Cincinnati Reds 3-2. Chicago's Moe Drabowsky shut out Pittsburgh 4-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals downed Philadelphia 3-1. Los Angeles and Milwaukee were idle.

Score failed for the seventh straight time to notch his 10th triumph although his Indian mates staked him to an early 7-3 lead. After giving up three runs in the first inning, he was knocked out of the box in the fourth and the victory went to his successor, Al Cicotte. The 26-year-old winner of 1956, who was limited to two victories in each of the last two seasons because of various injuries, has lost nine games, including his last four. Although he leads the league with 137 strikeouts, he has a high 4.29 earned run average.

Billy Goodman supported Buck Shaw's eight-hit pitching with three run-producing singles in the White Sox' victory over Washington. Goodman scored the fourth run to take part in all of Chicago's runs. Shaw, who lost his shutout in 14 decision, his fifth in a row.

Whiteford, recovered from a sore elbow, pitched his first victory since July 19 although he needed help from Ryne Duren. The Yankee southpaw struck out 10 and allowed only five singles before giving way to Duren with two out and two on in the eighth.

Duren halted the Athletics' threat and fanned he side in the ninth to preserve Ford's 11th triumph against six defeats. Bud Daley was the loser, giving up home runs to Hank Bauer and

Pete Cooper Still Leading In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Golfdom's gay young blades have been giving old man par a beating in the first two rounds of the $25,000 Cleveland Open, but they haven't been able to do much with old man Cooper.

The latter is Pete Coper, 44-year-old recent operator of a flat-and-putt course in Lakeland, Fla. With the four-day, 72-hole medal play going into the second half today, Cooper still was keeping out in front.

In the first round, Cooper fired a 67, 4 under par for the 6,965-yard, par 71 Seneca course. That tied him with veteran Jim Ferrier of Burbank, Calif., another 44-year-old, a stroke ahead of a field of 152.

Friday, in the second round, there were some amazing deeds among the younger set. Paul Harney, 30, the 1957 winner from Worcester, Mass., carved out an 8-birdie 63. Gene Littler, 29, of Singing Hills, Calif., had an 8-birdie 64. Big Mike Souchak came in with 65, and Doug Sanders and Jay Hebert had 66.

There were 27 subpar rounds fired, but "Old Pete" was still out in front by a stroke. Harney, Littler and Souchak were deadlocked for second with 135.

Trophy for the high single game went to John Hendon for his 279. Hendon also rolled the highest three game series, a 741. Leading the ladies were T. Young with a 199 single game score and Erila Burrier who recorded a 519 for three games.

Other trophies were awarded to Bill Jackson, Wally Jackson, Bill Tullis and Dick Tullis.

The Saxon Lanes are scheduled to reopen Saturday, Aug. 15. Reservations may be made by phoning ED 2-4083.

Gettysburg Is Excited Over Ike Vacation

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Gettysburg, long accustomed to taking President Eisenhower's comings and goings in stride, is a bit excited because it is going to be, for all practical purposes, the base of White House operations for a week or so.

The Gettysburg Times, which usually reports the President's weekend visits to his farm near here in a few paragraphs, gave top play to its story that the White House is going to set up shop here for an indefinite period. Eisenhower plans to play golf and relax until Monday, when he returns to the capital to keep appointments. He will meet with Republican congressional leaders there on Tuesday.

Then he returns here for what press secretary James C. Hagerty has described as the nearest thing to a vacation the President will get before beginning a series of international conferences later this month.

Warren Woman Killed In Dispute On Property Line

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A 68-year-old woman was shot and killed and her husband was wounded Friday as a climax to a dispute between neighbors over their property line.

Mrs. Kathryn Prokopchew died on the way to South Side Hospital in Youngstown. Her husband, Joseph, also 68, was reported in serious condition at St. Joseph's Hospital here with a wound in the head.

John Sacha, 70, a next-door neighbor to the Prokopchews, was arrested by sheriff's deputies and held in Trumbull County Jail on an open charge for further investigation. He told deputies that he and the Prokopchews had been feuding for about three years.

Deputies said Sacha fired three shots into Mrs. Prokopchew with a pistol after accusing her of trespassing on his property while weeding and digging in the yard. Prokopchew was shot when he came running from the garage with a hoe in his hand after hearing the shots, officers said.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yarian were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yarian from Warrenville Heights and the Rev. and Mrs. William Yarian of Fort Wayne, Ind.

WOUND IS FATAL

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A 15-year-old youth died in South Side Hospital Friday shortly after he shot himself accidentally at his home here. Police said Charles Peters was wounded in the chest when a 22-caliber rifle he was cleaning discharged.

RATE HIKE ASKED

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Hospital Services, Inc., of Canton, has asked for a 24 per cent rate increase in its Blue Cross plan. The organization said it lost $154,000 in the first six months of this year serving 208,000 subscribers in Tuscarawas, Stark, Holmes and Carroll counties.

The home that John Howard Payne wrote of in "Home Sweet Home" was a little cottage in East Hampton, Long Island.

COLUMBIANA

VFW Home Among New Construction Plans

COLUMBIANA — Nine building permits issued by the village during July call for an estimated $66,000 in construction and remodeling, including a proposed $45,000 home for York Drexler Post 5532, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The VFW last year purchased a portion of the former B & N Transportation Co. lot on N. Main St., and will erect the new two-story brick quarters there. The building will face N. Main St. from where an entrance will lead into the upstairs meeting room. To be built into the hillside, the building will be of two-story height in the rear, facing the north-south alley paralleling Main St.

Carl Lamoucha, a member of the building committee, said the post hopes for construction to start in early September, with occupancy of the building slated before the end of the year. Others on the committee are Robert Kessler, Chairman, Howard Gustafson, Gerald Leeb, Wendell Clark and Dick Schaber. Serving as advisers are three trustees: Joe Spozetta, Ben Rogers and Theron Caldwell.

The proposed building will have a large assembly room on the top floor, along with an office, kitchen and rest rooms. The lower floor will have two social rooms, offices, rest rooms, heating room and storage space. Inside stairways, front and rear, will connect the two floors. Parking space will be available at the rear of the building.

Post 5532 has temporary quarters in the old Farm Bureau building on W. Railroad St. Its original quarters, from the time of the post's organization 14 years ago, were in a two-story building on E. Friend St., just off S. Main St. The building was ruined by a fire in November of 1957.

OTHER BUILDING permits issued during the month include: Donald A. Merrett, to move and remodel a dwelling on Union St. Ext., $8,000; Adin Kaufman, to build addition to a residence on Seventh St., $6,000; Margaret Lamoucha, add new siding at dwelling at 347 S. Main St., $3,300; Donald Felger, remodeling project, Quincy Ave., $1,300; Robert Horne, erect garage at 164 N. Middle St., $1,000; Charles B. Chesney, remodel porch, 366 Firestone Ave., $700; William Long, remodel home, 110 Union St., $75; Carl A. Dodson, erect tool shed, Quincy Ave., $150.

Columbiana Camera Club will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in Pavilion 4 at Firestone Park. John Theil will discuss black and white pictures. Anyone interested in photography is welcome.

Steel Strike At A Glance

IDLE: Half a million United Steelworkers who struck the basic steel industry 25 days ago and about 100,000 employees in allied industries.

NEGOTIATIONS: Joint industry-union talks in recess for the weekend, slated to resume Monday in New York. Federal Mediation Chief Joseph F. Finnegan says the talks are encouraging but says there has been no progress.

WASHINGTON DEVELOPMENTS: Thirty-one Democratic senators join Sen. Stuart Symington D-Mo. in urging the President to try to speed up settlement of the strike.

PRODUCTION AND WAGE LOSSES: Industry loses about 300 million dollars worth of business each week; strikers lose nearly 70 million dollars in wages each week.

ISSUES: Union wants a 15-cent-an-hour wage hike plus fringe benefits. Industry rejects these demands, claiming higher labor costs will bring about an inflationary rise in steel price.

Rockefeller's Wedding to Be In Two Weeks

KRISTIANSTAD, Norway (AP)—Steven Rockefeller announced with a grin today he had lost his first real argument to his fiancée. Therefore his wedding will be performed two weeks from today in the "new" Lund church.

The son of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller appeared before reporters and photographers with Anne Marie Rasmussen outside the home of the bride's father.

He confined details of the nuptials to the choice of the church. "If I give you everything about the wedding now," he said, "you won't have anything to write at the time of the wedding and then you'd be the ones who were sorry."

Steven had wanted to be married in the three-century-old church in Sogne because of its tradition and primitive beauty, but Anne Marie insisted on the "new" church where she was christened and confirmed in the Norwegian Lutheran faith. Steven yielded and judging from his good humor he regarded it as something less than a crisis.

The 23-year-old heir to some of the Rockefeller millions had been avoiding newsmen since he came here last week to culminate the romance which apparently started when Anne Marie was serving as a maid in the Rockefeller household.

Steven finally gave in and consented to today's conference. He emerged first, and alone, from the Rasmussen home to give the photographers a few details about arrangements for stills and TV film. Smiling and joking, he then went in and fetched his bride-to-be.

'Buyer's Strike' Foreseen Against Little Rock Stores

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—One of the top segregationist leaders today threatened a "buyer's strike" against downtown merchants here if high school integration comes as scheduled Wednesday.

"If one Negro even attempts to attend a white high school," said Amis Guthridge, "we are calling on the people of every school district in Arkansas to stage a buyers' strike against Little Rock Main Street merchants, and against every firm that employs even one Negro."

Guthridge, attorney for the Segregationist Capital Citizens Council, also said his organization had planned other actions in connection with integration, but said he couldn't reveal it.

Grainger Williams, President of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce, when asked to comment, said he felt "additional comment would be in poor taste."

The chamber last winter officially urged the re-opening of public high schools.

Guthridge said the merchants "claim they want peaceful public schools."

"All they need to do is tell Daisy Bates to tell the Negroes to go to Horace Mann and we will have permanent peace in Little Rock."

In this, Guthridge hit at the Committee for Peaceful Operation of Our Public Schools, a new group of civic and business leaders. Daisy Bates is Mrs. L. C. Bates, Arkansas head of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, and Horace Mann is a Negro high school.

Guthridge set a deadline of 9 a.m. Monday for the merchants "to assure us"—and declined to elaborate further.

Another segregationist charged that police plan to use tear gas against "peaceable assemblies" when integrated schools open here Wednesday.

Only four days remain before six Negroes are scheduled to begin classes in two once white schools.

Four days before school opening in 1957, segregationists were busy organizing resistance to integration.

Last year, school patrons waited for Gov. Orval E. Faubus to invoke a school closing law handed him by a special session of the Legislature.

Segregationist violence brought federal troops to enforce integration in 1957. And the schools are scheduled to open Wednesday for the first time since Faubus closed them in 1958.

Today there are no known scheduled segregationist meetings.

There are only nebulous rumors that Faubus plans a special legislative session to replace the school closing law thrown out by a federal court.

The tear gas charge by Dr. Malcolm G. Taylor, president of the Capital Citizens Council, was discounted by city officials.

Queen, Prince On Vacation At Balmoral

BALMORAL, Scotland (AP) — Queen is now free to enjoy the seclusion today with her family to recover from the strain of her Canadian tour and to rest up for her third child.

The 33-year-old Queen arrived at Balmoral Castle Friday, with Britain's press in a sentimental tizzy over the coming happy event. Messages of congratulations flooded the tiny village post office near Balmoral.

Behind the grey walls of the castle built by Queen Victoria in 1854, Elizabeth with Prince Philip and their two children were effectively screened from the excitement let loose by the impending royal birth.

By long custom, royal vacations at Balmoral are held in the strictest privacy. And with her release from public engagements the Queen is now free to enjoy the seclusion of her Scottish home until late October.

Even so, police were prepared for an invasion of curious. High fencing was erected last year around parts of the extensive Balmoral estate to discourage tourists.

It has been 102 years since Britain had an expectant Queen and newspaper headlines reflected the excitement of the occasion.

"Well," exclaimed the Daily Sketch, "what lovely news."

"Feeling fine!" declared the Daily Express.

"A February baby?" mused the News Chronicle.

"Delighted ma'am," said the Daily Mail.

Air Force Orders Gov. Long to Pay For Use of Planes

WASHINGTON AP — The Air Force has given Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana 30 days to pay a $4,251 bill for unauthorized use of National Guard planes.

But the governor apparently is in no hurry to pay the bill which may cover the flight on which Mrs. Long and others took him to a mental clinic in Texas.

He told newsmen Friday that he would leave a down payment on the bill "in my will."

"I will look it over and give it careful consideration," Long said in New Orleans.

"All I can keep from paying, I will."

"I want to see some congressmen and other people billed, when they pay, I pay. I don't believe I'll have to pay that."

The Air Force sent the bill to Long as the governor and therefore the head of the National Guard in Louisiana. It did not say that he had ordered the flights.

The planes were used for 45 hours and 45 minutes sometime in April, May, June and July, the Air Force said, without being more specific. Long was taken to the clinic in Galveston on June 30. Those on the flight included Maj. Gen. Raymond Hufft, adjutant general of the Louisiana National Guard.

crumbling part of the top of the hood on his Buick.

A passenger in his car, Harry L. Cox of RD 2, East Palestine, is a half-brother of one of the victims, Williams, patrolmen said.

The two autos met in Kensington after Cox finished work at midnight. They drove to Minerva to go to a tavern, patrolmen said, but the place was closed. Patrolmen said they had made a purchase in Minerva and were en route east from there.

State Patrolman E. E. Wain said part of the wooden bridge was found inside the wreckage of the death auto. He was unable to determine which of the men had been thrown from the car.

E. C. Kramer of Red Bud, Ill., a trucker, said the two cars passed his truck near Minerva while he was traveling about 50 miles an hour. He was the first on the scene of the accident and notified the Minerva police.

William Eckman of Hanover, who hauled the cars away, said the accident might not have happened if the railroad crossing near the bridge hadn't been repaired recently. Cars were only able to cross the tracks at about 15 miles an hour before, he said.

The crossing is only a few hundred feet east of the bridge. The site of the accident is about midway between West Local School and the crossing on Rt. 30, just west of East Rochester.

Funeral services for all of the victims have been completed by the families. The notices will be found on Page 10.

The four fatalities in one accident is the highest in the past 15 years, according to the Ohio State Patrol at Lisbon. The deaths pushed to 21 the Columbiana County traffic toll this year. This is only one less than recorded in all of 1958. At this time last year, there were only 12 traffic fatalities reported.
